

STELLA MARIS' TRAINING IN ART-THERAPY OF PAINTING IN ENGLISH LANGUAGE

The Stella Maris' teacher, Dr. Robert Gorter, asked us to consider the possibility of activating a training course for Art-therapy of colour. This course should be addressed to Indian students only. Dr. Gorter has a long experience with India where he had lectures and conferences. Here you have a list with all the lectures that will be held from Stella Maris' teachers. The one year training has 1500 hours of frontal lessons and 1500 of individual work, including internship and degree thesis preparation.
